“We can change the world right where we are”

What does success really look like—whether in a nation, corporate business, community, family or an individual’s life?

Dr Chan Abraham is a business leader, social entrepreneur, author, broadcaster, church planter, pastor and thought leader. Through over four decades of business and ministry experience in commercial and not-for-profit sectors, public services, charities & churches he has mentored and developed leaders, inspired individuals and organisations to succeed, and enabled them to discover their creative potential for “life in all its fullness”.

Chan Abraham believes that real and sustained success is achieving the change that’s needed in each of these spheres. His passion is to help you, your business, or enterprise to move forward by the power of transformed thinking and doing, rooted in value-driven principles.

He has been described by the UK media as “the not-so-ragged-trouserer philanthropist”, and his business results as “Deep Magic.” They also say that Dr Abraham is “renowned for championing the ideals of positive mental attitude and perseverance” and that his “ultra-optimistic attitude to work and life might seem too good to be true.”

“We are pursuing a renaissance of leadership”

What others say:

“Chan was such a great guest speaker! I had many personal comments from the attendees about how they particularly enjoyed his talk and how he got us engaged and inspired; he was amazing! I had countless, countless encouraging warm comments from all who attended, how everyone enjoyed the evening, but especially found the presentations really entertaining, interesting and pertinent.”

However, they quickly add that “the overwhelming evidence speaks otherwise” referring to the extraordinary results of his approach.

His workers and customers have among the UK’s highest satisfaction levels. His companies twice hit the No. 2 spot on *The Sunday Times 100 Best Companies to Work For, and he has received numerous independent accolades, including The Sunday Times Leadership Award, Employer of the Year and the RoSPA President’s Gold Award for health and safety.

Chan Abraham believes that the key to success in business ultimately is leadership. From extensive practical experience his 3rd Millennium Leadership[®] brings seminars of substance and electrifying presentations that inspire audiences to move forward with transformational energy and vision.

His high-impact conferences, seminars and workshops will transform your leaders, managers and workers to energise significant results and sustained progress.
